

THE INCIDENT! SONG LIST

The Incident! can play either acoustically, where a more ambient or “background” style is required, or with backing tracks where a higher energy sound might be needed, at things like weddings, parties or larger private functions.

Use of backing tracks allows The Incident to sound as “large” as the original artist without taking up so much room!

Because of this capability, The Incident! is flexible enough to fit any venue and any event. The following list highlights both acoustic and backing track material, with the backing tracks listed last.
